Dear Gale:

Congratulations on receiving CBIA's endorsement of your candidacy for the Connecticut General Assembly.

After reviewing your campaign materials and experience, our membership believes you are the candidate who will best serve your community and constituents, including employers and their employees.

We look forward to working with you during the next two years and welcome your continued focus on job and economic growth as we make Connecticut an even better place to live, work, and raise a family.

Please note that state election law prohibits us from coordinating efforts to publicize this endorsement of your candidacy. Feel free to use this endorsement in your campaign materials and to share with anyone you see fit.

Best of luck in the November election.

Sincerely,

Joe Brennan
